This certificate is issued to companies that applied for Group Membership, demonstrated full compliance with RSPO and group requirements and were formally accepted as RSPO certified Group Member by Alioth (Group Manager) and its RSPO certificate-issuing accredited certification body. Validity of this certificate can only be verified through the website of RSPO (<https://www.rspo.org/certification/search-for-supply-chain-certificate-holders>). This certificate is issued due to the fact that registrations of new members are periodically processed by the Certification Body and RSPO. In any case that the Group Member cannot be found as a certified organization at the RSPO website, within 4 months after the issuance of this certificate, this certificate of membership shall be considered as proof of a valid RSPO Supply Chain certification of the organization. In case of any doubt, contact Alioth (info@alioth-support.nl) for verification of the validity of this Certificate of Membership.
